

Facts At A Glance

The Distillery Historic District

- Canada's largest pedestrian-only precinct for arts, culture and entertainment
- Set on 14 acres in downtown Toronto
- The Distillery District is the largest and best preserved collection of Victorian industrial architecture in North America
- In the 1880's the Distillery was the largest distillery in the world
- 4 residential condominiums have been built at The Distillery (the most recent was Pure Spirits Condominium)
- 40 storey - Clear spirits Condominium is under construction
- 37 storey - Gooderham Condominium construction is scheduled to commence in the fall of 2010
- There are more than 1600 residential units approved for the District and more than 2100 people will eventually call the Distillery District home
- Currently the site boasts 18 retail stores and boutiques, including Akroyd Furniture, Artemide, Bergo Designs, Corktown Design, distill, DOMtoronto, Elizabeth Munro Design, Hastens, Jonesy Charismatic Stationary, Leif Benner, Lileo, Pikto, Segway of Ontario, Sound Designs, Sport at the Distillery, Tenacious, Vintage Gardener, and TANK Jewellery & Beads
- The Distillery features five cafes and seven restaurants, including A Taste of Quebec, Balzac's Coffee, Brick Street Bakery, SOMA Chocolate, The Sweet Escape, The Boiler House, Archeo, The Cannery Room, Café Uno, Mill Street Brew Pub, Pure Spirits Oyster House & Grill, and Tappo Wine Bar & Restaurant
- There are 22 Galleries at the Distillery, including Arta Gallery, Art Doll Gallery, The Blue Dot Gallery, Clark & Faria, Corkin Gallery, David Brown, Deaf Culture Centre, distill, Dish Gallery and Studio, Engine Gallery, Gallery, Hastens, Hag Atelier, Julie M. Gallery, Labo, Pikto, PROOF Studio Gallery, Redeye Studio Gallery, Shao Design, The SPORT Gallery, Studio Fuse, Thompson Landry Gallery, Thompson Landry Cooperage Space
- The Distillery is home to 17 performing arts companies, including The CanDance Network, Canadian Dance Assembly, Dance District: Social Dance Studio, Dancemakers, Dance Ontario, DanceWorks, DVxT Theatre Company, Expect Theatre/Spark Productions, George Brown College, Native Earth Performing Arts, Necessary Angel Theatre Company, Nightwood Theatre, Queen of Puddings, Soulepper Theatre Company, Tapestry New Opera Works, Theatre Museum Canada, Volcano, and Young Centre for the Performing Arts
- There are 4 educational facilities on site including George Brown's theatre school, voice intermediate school and The Distillery Early Learning Centre.
- Countless Hollywood movies, television shows, commercials and music videos have been filmed at the Distillery, including the hit films Cinderella Man, Chicago, The Recruit, The Man, Frequency, Don't Say a Word, and Against the Ropes
- Distillery Sculpture Park includes 10 sculptures from a variety of different artists
- Over 600,000 of Cleveland's Historic pavers were purchased to complete the Distillery's brick paved roads.
- The Distillery has over a dozen patio and is licensed for over 2000 people.

